FROM THE EXALTED RULER

Jennifer Bell

My hopes is that your summer is going well! I recently returned from the Grand Lodge Convention in Charlotte, NC and it was a wonderful experience. The Convention hosted over 7,800 members and guests representing all fifty states. It was inspiring to look across the Convention Center to see that over 2200 Lodges were represented with each member wearing the respective color of their state. The gathering of so many Elks Lodge members for the purpose of Elkdom was truly remarkable. Although August may seem slow with Lodge activities, they are many projects that happening behind the scenes. Your Lodge Officers, Trustees, House Committee Members and Lodge Staff are consistently working on behalf of your Lodge. One project being the startup of the Ogdensburg Elks Lodge website. Fellow Elk members Jim Crowley, Beth Irvine and I have been working on bringing this Lodge into the world of technology with our very own website! The website will be dedicated to our Lodge and all we have to offer. Our hopes is that it will be available to the membership soon! The Trustees are continuing to work on the Capital Improvement Project. The response has been very positive from our membership in this endeavor. There are two upcoming Initiations, one being held on September 4th and the other on October 2nd. If you know anyone who is interested in joining now would be a good time! Sincerely & Fraternaly,
